

The Biting of Bows with Gemma Black

There is nothing more exciting for me than finding conjoined letterforms in works of calligraphic art around the world. In all my exemplars of the twenty-six letters I add the most famous ligature of all, the ampersand. The evolution of the ampersand, its styles and variations, has a history all of its own. Come and explore this beautiful structure, its etymology, its evolution, traditional and modern and familiarize yourself with other famous ligatures and conjoined (biting) letters. There will be a fascinating component of research and analysis along with pen-work, drawing and painting in this serious yet very enjoyable class.

This workshop is suitable for all levels of experience. Must be familiar with using a dip pen.
