

Unique marks / Powerful Letters with Lorraine Douglas

This workshop is about building a unique vocabulary of calligraphic marks and letters by asking:

- How can we incorporate ideas from drawing into calligraphy?
- How can we create an interesting composition on our pages?
- How can collage elements unite our calligraphy into a strong page design?
- How can I use tools in different ways?
- What is special about my own mark making and letters?
- How can I evaluate my marks?

This workshop is for all levels of experience. We will create a simple book with all our experiments – no bookbinding experience needed. Just bring your calligraphic adventurer’s spirit!
