

Origami Heart Card

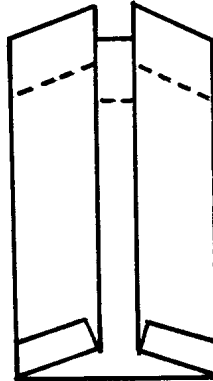

by Lynn Stevinsky

This easy and versatile card makes a unique wedding invitation or valentine. It uses 1 piece of 8½ x 11" paper and fits a standard legal size envelope.

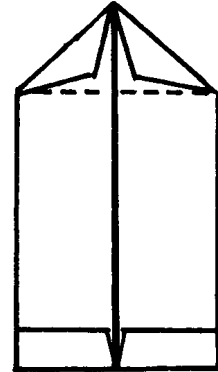

- 1) Fold down 2½" on top; open flat. Fold up 1" on bottom. Turn over.

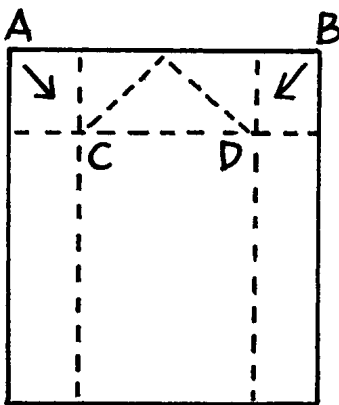

- 2) Mark the centre lightly, and fold the two sides in to the centre.

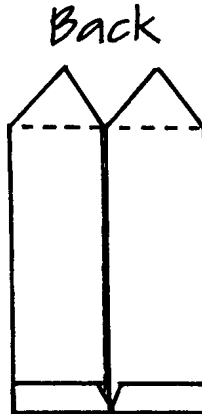

- 3) Fold the two top corners in to the centre.

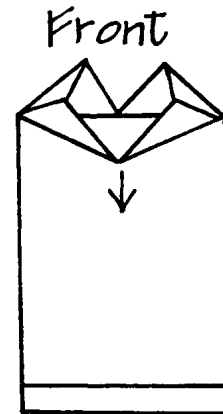

- 4) Open out the paper and fold the two outside corners in so that A touches C and B touches D.

- 5) Refold back into the centre allowing two triangles to stick up.

- 6) Turn over and pull the centre downward forming the heart on the front.

- 7) Glue a separate sheet for message under the bottom and place a second message sheet in the back pocket.
